

BARBADOS PUBLIC WORKERS' CO-OPERATIVE CREDIT UNION LIMITED

News Release, December 29, 2008

OUTSTANDING CONTRBUTION

Awards for Longstanding service for CEO of the BPWCCUL Clorinda Alleyne and Keith Bourne, Manager of Business Planning and Development.

AFTER A HARDWORKING and successful year the board and staff of the Barbados Public Workers' Co-operative Credit Union Ltd celebrated at the organisation's annual staff appreciation dinner and award ceremony, held this year at the Kendal Sporting Range in St. Philip. The more than one hundred guests turned out in their finest, feasted on a sumptuous buffet and were serenaded by the mellow sounds of the husband and wife team of Brownsoul. Here are some of the highlights.

C.E.O. Clorinda Alleyne poses with Keith Bourne Manager, Business Development & Planning

The stalwarts: Awarded for 25 years of service manager of Business Planning & Development Keith Bourne, Trevor Colucci, Clarence Greenidge and Ralph Boyce.

Pretty ladies in a row from l-r: Tracia Pounder, Marketing Assistant; Contact Centre Agent, Valcia Small; Administrative Assistant, Kimberley Grimes; and René Rudder, Service Quality Leader.

Specially invited guests from l-r: Principal of the Foundation School, Robert Cumberbatch; Marilyn Mapp, member of the Board; Secretary to the Board, Terroll Inniss and his wife Maxine; and Wendy Edwards with Glendon Belle, Credit Committee Chairman.